GOMPERS INTERRUPTS T. R.

Asks Colonel Why He Doesn't Accuse After an Investigation

GOMPERS SURPRISED

NEW YORK, July 6.—Denial by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that trades unions had any share in the East St. Louis riots, which was met by a vehement denunciation by Theodore Roosevelt of the murder of helpless negroes, precipitated a tumultuous demonstration at a mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall here tonight in honor of the Russian mission to the United States.

Gompers interrupted Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt was interrupted by Mr. Gompers, who rose from his seat and approached the former president.

"Why don't you accuse after an investigation?" the labor leader demanded.

With these words he returned to his seat, Roosevelt strode over to his chair and exclaimed:

"Mr. Gompers, why don't I accuse afterwards? I'll answer now when murder is so be answered."

With that the colonel brought down on Mr. Gompers' shoulder his open left hand, which he had raised above his head. At this juncture many of the men on the platform leaped to their feet and there was a storm of hisses, cheers, and "hoo" from all parts of the house. When Mr. Roosevelt could make himself heard above the din, he went on:

"I will go to any extreme to bring justice to the laboring man but when there is murder I will put him down."

Mitchell Pounds for Order

When the former president had finished, Mr. Gompers, evidently deeply stirred started to rise to make rejoinder but was pushed back into his seat by those who sat near him while Mayor Mitchell, who presided, pounded vigorously with his gavel in an effort to restore order. Several minutes elapsed before it was possible to introduce Boris Bak-hemetieff, the Russian ambassador, and continue the meeting. As the excitement subsided, Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Gompers found themselves sitting side by side.

It was at the close of an address by Gompers that the colonel was recognized by Mayor Mitchell. Mr. Gompers had declared that many laboring men are in much the same position as Russians under the old regime, read a telegram he said he had received tonight from the president of the Federation of Labor of Illinois. This message purported to explain the origin of the East St. Louis riots. It asserted that instead of labor unions being responsible for the rioting, they resulted from employers enticing negroes from the south to the city "to break the back of labor."

"There should be no apology for the infamous brutalities committed on the colored people of East St. Louis," declared Mr. Roosevelt in beginning his vigorous denunciation of the riots. "Justice is not a mere phrase. It has to be translated into action. How can we praise Russia for doing justice to all people when we must apologize for doing murder to the helpless?"

"In the past we have listened to the same excuse from those in authority in old Russia for fearful pogroms on the Jews. I will do anything for the laboring man except that which is wrong and I won't do that for him or for anyone else. I care not a snap of my finger for a telegram from the head of the labor unions of Illinois. Let there be the fullest investigation into these murders."

Departed from Text

It was at this point that the interruption came from Mr. Gompers. Mr. Roosevelt already had departed a little earlier in the evening from the text of his formal speech of welcome to the Russians to refer to the riots.

"Before I greet the envoys of the new republic," he had said, "I wish to say a word to you in regard to something that has recently occurred inside our own boundaries. Before we speak of justice to others it behooves us to do justice within our own boundaries. I refer to the race riots in East St. Louis, a race riot, for which, so far as we can see, there was no provocation and which resulted in such appalling brutality as to leave a stain on the American name."

"It is our duty to demand that the government authorities use, with ruthless severity, every power at their command to punish those guilty of murder whether committed by

SETTLE BLOOMINGTON STREET CAR STRIKE

Company Agrees To Take
Strikers Back In Service

Arrange Conference for Monday to Adjust All Other Difficulties—
Strikers Agree to Return to Work
Today—Troops to Remain at Least Until Monday.

Bloomington, Ill., July 6.—The Bloomington street car strike which for a time last night threatened to assume serious proportions after rioters stoned street cars was amicably settled late today while 600 state soldiers were on the ground prepared to combat any trouble tonight. The Illinois Traction System, which controls the lines here, agreed today to take back in service the men who left its employ a few weeks ago, precipitating the trouble and a conference was arranged for Monday to adjust all other difficulties.

Major Announces Settlement.

The strikers agreed to return to work tomorrow. Mayor Jones announced the settlement to hundreds of persons assembled at the City Hall this afternoon. He said General Manager Chubbuck of the traction system had agreed to grant the men's demands insofar as reinstatement was concerned.

Other issues, including the closed shop demands of the employees, a new pay schedule and hours of labor will be taken up when a committee representing the street car men, the federated shop employees of the Chicago & Alton, Mayor Jones and the traction company meet.

Several hundred employees of the Alton shops quit work today in a sympathetic strike and paraded uptown.

Artillery Quickly Erects Tents.

The second contingent of the Second Illinois Artillery arrived about 6 o'clock this evening and joined their comrades who arrived at noon. The artillery quickly erected tents in the court house yard and sentries were stationed at various street corners to prevent crowds congregating.

Machine guns, mounted on motor trucks are located in the court house yard also, ready for duty at any point where trouble might originate. The National Guard company from Peoria is stationed at the street car power house. While the city is quiet and no further outbreaks are anticipated the troops will remain here at least until the conference Monday afternoon.

Announcement of the agreement to call off the strike was received with great cheers by the crowd at the city hall. The men who quit work are to return to the cars Saturday morning.

At the meeting in front of the city hall, speeches were made by President Patterson, of the Trades Assembly and by Mayor Jones.

Mr. Peterson argued against violence and announced that the return of the strikers to the employ of the street railway company constituted recognition of the union but this was vigorously questioned by many in the crowd. Demands were made of Mayor Jones that he send the troops home but they met with no satisfaction at the hands of the mayor.

JEERS GREET SLACKERS IN CHICAGO PRISON

CHICAGO, July 6.—One hundred and twelve Rockford objects to the draft registration, each under sentence of one year and a day in the Chicago house of correction were greeted with jeers and hisses as they passed thru the gates of the city prison today.

Over the entrance of the prison hung the stars and stripes beneath which the prisoners were obliged to walk. Outside the walls a crowd of men and boys had gathered and greeted the prisoners with hoots. Tin pans were beaten. The guards were asked to "give the crowd a chance at the slackers."

Scent ceremony was given the reception of the men. They were stripped, vaccinated, given a bath and prison hair cut and clothes and then locked in cells. Some of the men objected to being locked up but were quickly convinced by forceful argument that the guards who hustled them into the cells.

"They are meek as lambs now," said the prison superintendent after the locking up process. "Some of them tried to show a little fight but the guards knew how to handle them."

SUGGEST ELECTING NEW GERMAN REICHTAG

COPENHAGEN, July 6.—Tentative suggestions as to the advisability of electing a new reichstag without waiting for the end of the war are being put forward in German radical circles. Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former secretary of state for the colonies, said in addressing a radical convention in Schleswig-Holstein, that it would be improper for a reichstag of such out of date origin, elected under such different conditions to venture to pass upon the questions of peace.

The Tageblatt points out that the bill extending the life of the present reichstag another year, which will be voted upon this week, would result in a seven year term, which would be contrary to the constitution. Although elections in time of war are conceded to be difficult, the Tageblatt says it would not be impossible to hold them, remarking that there is no prospect of early restoration of peace.

Other parties have manifested no desire to hold elections and as the radicals are not pressing the matter an extension of the present reichstag probably will be voted.

SENATE VOTES DOWN BONE DRY CLAUSE

Defeat of Proposal Insures Legislation Will Be Limited
To Distilled Beverages

RECESSES UNTIL TODAY

New Element Injected into Contest Disrupts Leaders' Well Laid Plans

DEBATE TURBULENT

WASHINGTON, July 6.—At the close of a day of turbulent debate, and after voting 52 to 34 against the so-called "bone dry" amendment the senate tonight recessed until tomorrow in the midst of the prohibition fight on the food control bill.

Disrupt Leaders' Plans

Defeat of the bone dry proposal insures that legislation prohibiting manufacture of intoxicants will be limited to distilled beverages. Whether consumption as well as manufacture of distilled spirits shall cease during the war a new element injected into the contest at the eleventh hour completely disrupted leaders' well laid plans and caused the recess for conferences on a compromise.

After roll calls showing a considerable majority against stopping manufacture of beer and wines or giving the president power to suspend their manufacture the senate voted 68 to 10 to prohibit the importation of distilled beverages and then by a vote of 45 to 40 tentatively adopted a provision prohibiting withdrawal of distilled spirits now held in bond for beverage purposes.

Both provisions, the voted on separately are contained in an amendment by Senator Cummings and adopted to the so-called administration compromise substitute of Senator Robinson of Arkansas. The Robinson amendment prohibits manufacture of distilled beverages. Many senators who had planned to vote for the Robinson substitute promptly expressed their disapproval of the Cummings amendment, which they declared proposed virtual confiscation of 220,000,000 gallons of distilled beverages in bond without conserving any grain. The pointed out that the government would lose between $250,000,000 and $300,000,000 in taxes and asserted that banks with loans upon distilled spirits might be put out of business.

Prohibition Forces Elated

The prohibition forces, however, were openly elated over the possibility of stopping consumption as well as manufacture of whiskey and other "hard" beverages.

Tomorrow the fight will center upon an effort to eliminate the Cummings amendment upon reconsideration or by compromise. Pending when the senate recessed tonight was a proposed compromise amendment by Senator Reed who would authorize the president to permit withdrawal of distilled spirits from the bonded warehouses if he believes it in the public interest. Upon disposition of the prohibition section the senate leaders expect to seek an agreement for a final vote upon the food bill as a whole next Wednesday or Thursday.

The senate spent the day in fervent oratory and roll calls on numerous proposals.

Senator Myers of Montana offered the "bone dry" amendment proposing to add malt, fermented and vinolous beverages to the provisions of the Robinson substitute prohibiting manufacture of distilled beverages. The vote on the Myers amendment follows:

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

After checking the latest effort of the German crown prince in Champagne the French took the offensive and succeeded in straightening out their line in the region of Mont Haut and Mont Carnillet. General Petain's men held their gains despite four strong attacks.

Switching his operations from north of the Aisne did not help the crown prince, as his effort in Champagne west of Mont Carnillet and southeast of Tahure failed, as did his recent heavy attacks north of the Chemin-des-Dames.

General Petain responded to the German effort by reducing salients in his line east of the scene of the Teuton attack. The French not only captured prisoners, but beat off counter-attacks showing that the Germans attached importance to the French gains.

On the rest of the French front and especially around the curve in the French line northeast of Soissons violent artillery engagements are in progress.

A great artillery battle is in progress on the front where the Russians made their sudden advance early this week. Near Zboroff and between Zlochoff and Brzezany in Galicia, the Russian and German guns are hammering the opposing lines and near Smorgon north of the Pripiet marshes the big guns are active.

Signs of a re-awakening of activity on the front in Roumania are increasing and near Bialestch German attempts to fraternize with the Russians were answered by the artillery.

Northwest of Selo on the Carso, an Italian surprise attack netted some gain of ground. Austrian counter-attacks were beaten off successfully.

Unofficial reports say Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, in his forthcoming speech before the reichstag will make such declarations as will serve as a basis for peace negotiations.

The Orleans, the first American steamship to pass thru the German blockade zone to a French port after the announcement of unrestricted submarine warfare, has fallen a victim to a submarine.

U-BOAT TORPEDOES STEAMER ORLEANS

Four of Crew Drown—Was First U. S. Ship to Cross after German Announced Ruthless Submarine Warfare.

Washington, July 6.—The American Steamship Orleans of the Oriental Navigation Company has been torpedoed and sunk by a submarine. Four of the crew were drowned but all members of the armed naval guard were saved. The state department announcing the sinking today, withheld the place and the time of the attack.

As the first ship flying the American flag to brave a trans-Atlantic voyage after Germany announced her policy of relentless submarine warfare the Orleans was given a great demonstration on her arrival at Bordeaux.

Members of the naval gun crew were William B. Christ, chief gunners mate, Lynn, Mass.; John E. Maloney, gunners mate, New York City; Leo Richardson, boatswain's mate, Lakeview, Chicago and Seamen Fred R. Despain, Peoria; Fred H. Freeman, Indianapolis; Paul C. Hughes, North Detroit, Mich.; Ernest E. King, Rutland, Vt.; David M. McClellan, Mont.; Edwin J. Norton, East Boston; Martin Truess, Detroit; Richard P. Walter, Atlanta and Frank L. West, Midvale, N. J.

New York, July 6.—The Orleans a vessel of 2,808 tons gross, left here June 18 with cargo for France, commanded by Captain Allen D. Tucker, of her crew of 36, ten were American citizens.

After Germany announced unrestricted submarine warfare the Orleans was the first American steamship to reach France from an American port. She was formerly the Aveland and later the Menapha under the Argentine flag.

STATE TO HAVE ATTORNEY AT GRAND JURY SESSION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 6.—When the St. Clair county grand jury meets at Belleville next Monday to investigate charges of rioting and arson lodged against men arrested in connection with the East St. Louis riots early this week, a representative of Attorney General Brandegee's office will be on the ground to make sure that the county officials do their work thoroughly, it was announced here today. Assistant Attorney General Middlekauff probably will be sent to Belleville it was stated.

Attaches of Fire Marshal John Gamber's office the preparing a report on evidences of incendiarism and will have material for presentation to the grand jury connecting certain men with the burning buildings, it was said here this afternoon. Mr. Gamber himself was at East St. Louis on Tuesday and instructed a complete investigation.

Governor Lowden today repeated his determination that the blame for the rioting and burning be fixed.

STRIKES WILL NOT AFFECT COAL MINERS

DENVER, Colo., July 6.—The epidemic of strikes in copper mining fields of the west will not affect the coal miners of the country in the opinion of John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, here today.

White said Industrial Workers of the World agitators on whom Chas. H. Meyer, president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, lays the onus of causing the copper strikes, are not at work among the coal miners.

TAKE TWO GERMANS IN NEW YORK CITY

One is Reputed to Be Paymaster for German Spy System in the U.S.

REMOVED TO ELLIS ISLAND

Spy Rumors May Result in More Stringent Regulation of Mails and Cables

SPY SYSTEM INEVITABLE

NEW YORK, July 6.—Agents for the department of justice this afternoon arrested two Germans, one reputed to be a paymaster for the German spy system in this country and the other alleged to have been formerly associated with Captain Franz Von Papen, one time military attache at the German embassy in Washington. The prisoners were removed to the Ellis Island immigration station. They are accused of being alien enemies to the United States. They are described as Carl Heynen, a German organizer and an authority on Mexican affairs, and P. A. Burgemeister. The latter is alleged to be a spy paymaster.

Heynen was once German consul at Mexico City.

The federal agents who made the arrests said the men were taken into custody by order of the authorities in Washington.

Heynen and Burgemeister were arrested in offices of the Hamburg-American Line Building once occupied by Dr. Heinrich Albert, formerly commercial attache of the German embassy in Washington and representative of Deutsche Bank of Berlin.

Dr. Albert was reputed to be chief financial representative of German propaganda. Dr. Albert and Von Papen left this country. Federal agents alluded to Burgemeister today as the "boss paymaster of the German spy system in this country."

Federal authorities look on Heynen as an organizer of no mean ability. He is credited with having formed, under direction of Von Papen and Dr. Albert, the Bridgeport project company which it is alleged to have been shown thru papers seized from Von Papen when he arrived at Falmouth, Jan. 5, 1916, was run in the interests of Germany. Correspondence of Dr. Albert also disclosed, it was said, that the scheme was to make contracts with munitions manufacturers for a certain period, then pay the forfeit for default. The contracts were so drawn that the manufacturing plans could not undertake any other work during the period specified in the contracts.

Washington, July 6.—Altho officials here take little stock in the more sensational spy rumors that have followed the submarine attack on the American expeditionary force, it is not unlikely that the agitation may result in more stringent espionage regulation, with regard to outgoing mails and cables.

No general realignment of the spy detection machinery of the government is contemplated it was said today, because officials consider that results of the present system have demonstrated its efficiency. It has been declared authoritatively that startling revelations of what already has been accomplished might be made as if it were considered in the public interest. The government realizes that such a course probably would serve no good purpose and might generate a spy hysteria of dangerous proportions like the scars which resulted in injustice to innocent persons in several European countries earlier in the war. It also would warn the spies themselves of the methods employed by the American investigating agents. In view of the loyal attitude of the large body of German-Americans, it is considered particularly important that there be no hysterical agitation and no unnecessary engendering of suspicion against the foreign born. That the ancient German spy system is operating in this country is considered by high officials as one of the inevitable circumstances of the war. The large foreign population undoubtedly makes espionage easier than in most countries. It is possible that power will be sought to censor outgoing mails. Whether this would cover the mails to all countries or simply to those not now covered by the British mail censorship is uncertain.

The question of a cable censorship has been widely discussed but that of censoring mails has received little attention.

Postmaster General Burleson, said today that he was opposed to any mail censorship to neutral countries on the ground that it is not necessary.

Communication to Spain will probably be first investigated by this government.

DISCUSSES MILITARY INFLUENCE IN AMERICA

Military Critic of Berlin Paper
Writes Two Column Article

Asserts America's Influence Must Be Reckoned With If War Lasts Until 1918—Declares Entente Count
on America's Numbers

Copenhagen, July 6.—Captain Von Salzmann, military critic of the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin, devotes a two column article to the military influence of America on the war, on which he says it will be necessary to reckon if the struggle lasts until 1918. He states that first and foremost the powerful influence of American intervention on Germany's opponents and on neutrals is already evident and that the effects must not be underestimated.

Captain Von Salzmann assures his readers that in regard to quality the American soldiers will not attain the standards of brilliance characterizing the French and German armies or their talent in leadership, finesse in execution and quickness of decision, but that America's military contribution, like Great Britain's will find expression in numbers and mechanical power.

America's numbers, he writes, are counted upon by the Entente in respect of men, artillery, and particularly aviators. Incorporated in divisional units with British and French troops and Captain Von Salzmann expects the American forces to be, he says they will be worthy opponents.

Nevertheless, the Americans will not decide the result on the western front, he writes in conclusion because Field Marshal Von Hindenburg says the submarine will force a decision before they become a decisive factor.

RESOURCES OF CHICAGO BANKS SHOW DECREASES

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 6.—Resources of almost 100 Chicago banks showed a decrease on June 21 as compared with May 2 of $16,714,296.40, according to the report of State Auditor Russell issued today.

Resources on June 21 when 95 banks reported amounted to $864,135,933.45; and on May 2 when 97 banks reported they were $880,848,230.35. Total deposits including "due to banks" were less by $18,098,842.34 on June 21 than on May 2. This was accounted for by the statement that many deposits had been received from banks and put in liberty loan bonds. Deposits on June 21 in Chicago amounted to $34,063,044.90.

Government bonds increased $4,059,518.58 going up from $5,676,050.47 on May 2 to $8,735,569.05. This figure does not include liberty loan bonds to the extent of $5,115,685.78, listed separately.

The per cent of reserve to deposits including "due to banks" is given as 26.74.

STATES ENTENTE SEEKS DISRUPTION OF GERMANY

BERLIN, July 6, via Amsterdam.—The Reichstag was opened yesterday with a speech by the president who said that the war continued to rage and asked what a "shocking amount of misery and distress would be spared the world if Germany's enemies had agreed to the magnanimous peace offer of Emperor William and his allies to find a peace which would preserve the honor and the interests of all nations."

The Reichstag's president declared that the war aims of Germany's enemies meant disruption and disintegration of Germany and her allies but that against this existed the usual unanimous duty to resist with all her power and defend Germany's future, cost what it may.

NAVAL PATROL BOATS SEARCH FOR U-BOATS

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., July 6.—Naval patrol boats today continued their search for an enemy submarine which was reported to have been sighted submerged in these waters late yesterday, but no trace of the craft has been found.

Marine observers did not believe it possible for a submarine to submerge in the roads or lower Chesapeake Bay because of insufficient deep water and in this connection they pointed to the fact that the German merchant underwater boat Deutschland could not go under until after she passed the Virginia Capes last summer.

SHOW INCREASE IN REVENUE.

Washington, July 6.—May reports of 130 of 136 railroads to the Interstate Commerce Commission show an increase in net revenue of approximately $1,500,000. The decrease in earnings of eastern roads of $1,800,000 was more than offset in the total by a slight increase in southern roads earnings and a rise of more than $3,000,000 in net revenues of the western roads.

SENTENCES SEVEN MORE "SLACKERS"

Freeport, Ill., July 6.—Seven more "slackers" who defied the federal registration law in Rockford, Ill., last month were sentenced to serve a year and a day in Chicago house of correction by Federal Judge Kenneth Mountain Landis here today. Similar sentences were given 117 men by Judge Landis yesterday.

ADVANCE CONSCRIPTION BILL.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 6.—The Canadian House of Commons early today adopted the resolution by Premier Borden passing to second reading the bill for compulsory military service. Exciting scenes marked the taking of the vote which stood 118 for conscription and 55 against.

MAY SELECT DRAFT ARMY NEXT WEEK

No Official Statement Has
Been Made as to War
Department's Plans

INDICATE PLAN'S OUTLINE

Approximately 30,000, or One in Each District, Will Be Drafted with Each Number

MANY COMPLICATIONS

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Selection day for the new national army is approaching rapidly as the local exemption boards in the various states complete their organization, give serial numbers to the registration cards and forward certified copies to Provost Marshal General Crowder. Indications are that the drawing will be held next week, but no official statement has been made as to the war department's plans.

Indicate General Outline

The general outline of the plan, however, is clearly indicated.

It is understood that it is proposed to place in a single jury wheel in Washington one complete set of numbers. When a number is taken from the wheel, the man in each exemption district whose card bears that serial number will be drafted.

Thus as each number is drawn, approximately 30,000 men will be drafted or one in each exemption district. If 1,200,000 men are to be called before the exemption boards in the first selection, which seems highly probable, only 40 numbers would need to be drawn.

There are numerous complications which must arise, however, and the method of solving them can be known only when the administration makes known its plans in detail.

For instance the number of registered individuals in districts who are liable for military service will certainly not be the same. Aliens are registered but not liable for duty.

All this must be considered in framing the regulations. Provisions must be made also to balance as far as possible the chances of military duty between the men in each district, so that disqualification of a large number in any particular district for any reason, will not put upon those qualified additional likelihood of being sent to the front.

Suggest Various Ways

Various ways of accomplishing this correction of chances so as to make the resulting draft as fair as human ingenuity can contrive have been suggested. The matter has had President Wilson's personal consideration in line with his pledge that the method employed would be just in every respect. While the first contingent of the new army under the bill is limited to 500,000 men an additional 125,000 or 150,000 will be needed to make up the serve battalions of this force.

Serve battalions are now being recruited for all regular regiments will be recruited for the National Guard when it is drafted into federal service. The organization of the National army will be the same basis. It may be necessary also to draft enough men to make the regulars are now close to war strength, altho no decision has been reached as to whether the regulars are now close to strength and the guard units are recruiting rapidly.

There is one other consideration which will affect the total number of men to be drawn. Opinion varies as to the number of exemption causes outlined in the exemption regulations. A rough estimate of at least fifty per cent exemptions for physical or other reasons has been generally considered.

APPEARANCE OF BLIGHT WORRIES FARMERS

DECATUR, Ill., July 6.—Central Illinois farmers are worrying over the appearance of blight in the wheat crop. As yet, the blight has only appeared in spots and the yield in some fields will probably be reduced by one fifth. Hot dry weather is needed to overcome it, say the farmers.

Many of the central Illinois farmers have sold their wheat for fall delivery at $1.75 a bushel.

CIVIL WAR IN CHINA
Civil war has broken out in China, so there is one more country added to the world conflagration. But this time it is a fight among peoples of the same race. The issue in China is the same as in the rest of the world—democracy and autocracy.
The throne has been re-established and a limited monarchy announced.
But in a large element of the population the spirit of liberty and democracy still burns and it will not submit to a return of the old regime. It is noticed that the Chinese (even the few in Jacksonville) in this country are very much in favor of the triumph of democracy.

WOULD LIKE TO

Our neighboring county of Sangamon has subscribed practically $100,000 to the Red Cross funds. Morgan will unquestionably do as well, proportionately, when the call is made on our citizens. One farmer has already made known to the Journal that he will prepare and plant one acre of wheat, the product to be for the benefit of the Red Cross. Jacksonville and Morgan county has never failed to do her full share in a time of need.

HOLD AN EASY JOB

State game wardens of Illinois who have been legislated out of office by the consolidation act are expected to make a fight in an effort to retain their positions. The fight is led by S. A. Edwards of Decatur, who contends that he is still on the job because he was selected from the eligible list of the state civil service commission, and that his term of office does not expire until April, 1918. Most game and fish wardens that we have known have enjoyed such "easy money" that there is little surprise in the statement that they can only be jarred loose with a club.

PASSING OF THE FIFTH INFANTRY

The old-time Fifth regiment Illinois Infantry will soon be a thing of the past. Many in Jacksonville will regret the passing of the honored name. Our own boys have so long been members of the Fifth that it will seem strange to speak of them as a part of the One Hundred and Forty Third U. S. Infantry. The Fifth Infantry was organized in central Illinois many years ago. It has been a state body, with the exception of the progress of the Spanish American war, when it became a part of the federal forces, but was known as the Fifth Illinois Volunteers. Now it loses its identity as a state organization, and in a few days shifts to the federal service.

THE WORST IN AMERICA

Senator Sherman usually goes the hunt when he warms up to a subject. The Senator in speaking of the unpardonable sins of the mob in East St. Louis declares the saloons were responsible.

"It's the worst saloon town in America," he said, adding that the saloons openly disregarded the laws and for years the town has been an oasis to the people of St. Louis, Mo., who came across the bridge on Sundays to get their liquor."

The Illinois senator asserted that the mayor was supine and the police not only inadequate, but with an inclination not to interfere with violation of the liquor laws East St. Louis, he said, received a lot of the undesirables from St. Louis, Mo., and so great had contempt for law become it was easy enough for the lawless to start a career of shooting and burning when the occasion offered.

"I have no apology for East St. Louis or for my state or for any other state which allows such conditions to exist," he declared. "I am a bone dry senator from now on."

Part of the blame, Senator Sherman said, was due to the presence of Industrial Workers of the World.

ADOPTING DEVASTATED CITIES

In adopting a French town or city, and providing the funds needed for bringing it up again, the town or city to be adopted can express its choice of a foster parent. The French minister of fine arts, and his associates on the committee of the French restoration fund, have telegraphed to their American representative suggesting that he ask the City of Detroit to adopt the French town of Soissons. Washington, D. C., has already adopted the little City of Noyon. The people of our national capital are now subscribing to a fund for the resurrection of Noyon, of which the Germans have left practically nothing but bare walls, the most of which are broken. Soissons is perhaps in even worse plight, the not permanently occupied by the Germans for so long a time. It is one corner of a bloody triangle, of which Laon and Craonne are the other two. There cannot be much left of Soissons which, before the war, was flourishing community of about 20,000, vigorous in industrial activities in spite of an age running back to the times of the Romans. The appeal of Soissons to Detroit perhaps grows out of the fact of the French origin of the great Michigan city. Detroit is very likely to respond generously, in a like spirit.

Other cities are likely to be asked to adopt some ruined French city for the same reason. But why wait to be asked?

LIABILITY OF THE CITY AND STATE

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People with former Judge Edward Osgood Brown of the Appellate Court president, is planning to institute suits under the Illinois statutes against the City of East St. Louis and St. Clair County for personal damages on behalf of the dependents of the negro men and women who died at the hands of the incensed mobs in the orgy of murder and arson several days ago. Under the statutes, the dependents have actions against both the city and the county for damage to property, life and limb, the judgments not to exceed $5,000 in each case. This may mean suits for nearly $1,000,000 when the final loss of the scores killed, the hundreds injured and the many homes destroyed is recorded.

Speaking of the duty of the state regarding the situation at East St. Louis the Globe-Democrat says:

"Murder is not an offense against federal authority. It is an offense against morality and humanity, but specifically it is an offense against the sovereignty and dignity of the state in which it is committed. When Gov. Altgeld, in 1895, protested against the using of United States troops in Chicago, it was a sufficient answer to him that he could not talk of the sovereignty of his state without making an exercise of that sovereignty by a vigorous use of the state's own military power. State sovereignty is not an empty term to be used only in protest of a federal sovereignty when state sovereignty fails. Sovereignty means the power, ability and disposition to enforce law."

"It would be a serious reflection upon the State Government of Illinois now to invoke the exercise of any degree of federal authority in East St. Louis. Illinois has suffered the shame. The stain is upon her. And unless full and ample power under the law to locate the responsibility for weakness and the guilt of crime, is strong enough to deal with the weak for their weakness and the criminals for their crimes, that stain will remain. Illinois is on trial. It is entitled to opportunity to vindicate itself. Should it fail, so much the worse for the men responsible for the failure."

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

BACK TO THE FARM.
Since I'm too fat to do much harm with sword or gun or sabre, methinks I'll go back to the farm, and do some useful labor. In carnage I would like to slosh, but as I've too much tallow, I'll raise the large and shapely squash, the artichoke and mallow. Then, maybe, when the war is done, and Kaiser Bill's a goner, with him who plied the deadly gun they'll let me share the honor. When I'm declared too fat to fight, I do not sulk or grumble; I say, "What- ever is right—I'll choose a task more humble. There surely is some useful sphere in which a portly duffer may do as much as tho, with spear, he made a Prussian suffer. So I shall hum some martial chants while spading, raking, hoeing; I'll cultivate my nutmeg plants, and keep my string beans growing." Most men are glad to bear the flag to any war-savvy region, if they can ride on prancing nag, and boss a fighting legion. We cannot all wear stripes of gold and train with captains country, for some of us have grown too old, and others are too portly. But there are places for us all, what- ever our age or station, to hang a banner on the wall and do things for the nation.

STATE E. ST. LOUIS SAFE TO LAW ABIDING NEGROES

Chamber of Commerce Sends Letter To Red Cross

Letter States Chamber of Commerce and Citizens' Committee are Able To Give Positive Assurance That the Negroes Will Be Safe.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 6.—The East St. Louis Chamber of Commerce today sent a letter to the Red Cross emergency relief committee of St. Louis, Mo., which is temporarily caring for negroes who fled from East St. Louis, declaring that East St. Louis is now secure to all law-abiding negroes who wish to return. The letter states that the chamber of commerce and the citizens' committee are able to give positive assurance that the negroes will be safe and will have the strongest protection of civil and military forces.

A conference between Chief of Detectives Stocker and Coroner C. P. Renner was held today behind closed doors and it was erroneously reported that an inquest was underway. The inquisition will be held Monday.

After a meeting today of the citizens' committee of the chamber of commerce, it was announced that the resignation of Chief of Police Payne and of Cornelius Hickey, night chief, would be demanded by the committee. The resignation of three members of the police and fire board or a promise of radical reform in the conduct of the city's affairs, also will be demanded if it was indicated.

A resolution drawn up by the citizens' committee was presented to a meeting of employers and business men.

The resolution declared that failure to enforce the law thoroughly and impartially was responsible for the race riots and places the blame on the police department heads and other city officials responsible for conserving the law.

The "good people" of East St. Louis are not without blame, the resolution says, as they were aware of the reign of crime that prevailed but took no steps to better conditions.

Lack of understanding on the part of officials of the police department that all violators of the law were to be punished irrespective of race, political conditions or association was the chief cause of the trouble the resolution says and demands the re-organization of the police department. No action of the resolution was taken by the business men and employers.

NORTHCLIFFE GIVES OUT PARTS OF SPEECH

Speaks of the Dangers of Any Except Technical Military and Naval Censorship of Press.

Washington, July 6.—Lord Northcliffe, head of the British missions in this country, today authorized publication of parts of a confidential speech on spies and censorship made to the National Press Club July 4. He described the work of spies in England and flood of fatal information that pours over the cables through neutral countries to Germany and spoke of the dangers of any except technical military and naval censorship of the press. Only on two occasions in the last month Lord Northcliffe said had he seen anything published in American newspapers that might have been of value to the enemy.

What does not yet seem to be understood here and what we did not understand at the beginning of the war is that the really deadly high explosive news is not newspaper news but the news sent out by spies in code to neutral countries for transmission to Germany," Lord Northcliffe said.

"Admitted that the task of examining hundreds of thousands of cables a day is difficult and costly. Admitted that keen brains are required in large numbers for the task. The brains are here in abundance and the outgoing cables can easily be coordinated so that all cables addressed to the same names abroad and even to the same towns abroad come under the eyes of the same censors week after week. It is by means of checking back cables addressed from England to neutral countries that we have caught many of our spies."

"It is not difficult for spies to get news. Their task is the delivery of the goods and that task they concentrate. I do not know whether you have a mail censorship on letters to Spain but I venture to think that our age or station, to hang a banner on the wall and do things for the nation."

"The cable censor must be remorseless if he finds constant domestic telegrams going to one particular place. At the risk of disturbing happy homes he must hold up or destroy the cables. A world of meaning can be concealed behind the words 'mother better' or 'mother going to seashore.' We had been warned for years that England was full of German spies but did not believe it. German were admitted to our clubs, went about among us and seemed very friendly. At the outbreak of the war we found that we had been entertaining several battalions of spies."

"A certain man of war reported it had fired on a German submarine and sunk it. An English submarine which was in exactly the same location reported it had been fired on by a German vessel."

The thirteenth birthday of Miss Pauline Hankins was the occasion Friday afternoon of an enjoyable social gathering at the home of Mrs. H. A. Frye on North Main street. The event was celebrated on the porch and lawn of the Frye home and everywhere national flags were used to charming effect. A large birthday cake was cut which had been baked by Mrs. H. E. Frye and this was decorated also in pretty patriotic style. A number of beautiful gifts attested the regard in which Miss Hankins is held. Each of the twenty-five young people present declared this afternoon party to be a complete success.

MOVING PICTURE AS COURT EVIDENCE

Paris, July.—A moving picture film is soon to be introduced into court as evidence in a divorce case. The plaintiff in the action saw on a screen on the boulevard pictures of the procession of Italian delegates thru the boulevards to the Place de la Concorde to lay a wreath upon the Strasbourg monument. The procession was followed in a taxicab by the defendant, who was seen to be in the taxicab with his wife seated with a stranger. He bought the film to be used as the basis of his action for divorce.

FRENCH WIN VICTORY BY PERSONAL INITIATIVE

Repulse German Attempt To Re-take Chemin-des-Dames

Commanding General States German Crown Prince Knocked at the Wrong Door and Received a Disagreeable Reception—Presence of Americans Encourages French.

FRENCH FRONT in France, Thursday, July 5.—By The Associated Press—Personal initiative combined with bravery and tenacity, won for the French a splendid victory when the Germans attempted last Tuesday night to retake Chemin-des-Dames by a furious attack. The commanding general, after inspecting the entire eleven mile line where the battle occurred declared today to the Associated Press:

"The German Crown Prince had arranged a surprise party for us, in order to offset the Russian victory in Galicia, but he knocked at the wrong door and received a disagreeable reception."

Open Bombardment Suddenly. Before the enemies' attack began an uncanny silence reigned along this famous road where the hostile armies are facing each other at close quarters. Suddenly the German bombardment opened and its intensity impressed the French general as being greater than he ever before experienced on the Somme at Verdun or in the Champagne.

The shell smoke was thick and the fumes from poisonous and lacromosal shells so heavy it was impossible to take observations. The French general attempted to communicate with his battalion and artillery commanders but the wires had been broken by projectiles.

Then to his astonishment he learned that the artillery suspecting something was about to occur had gone to a much exposed listening post between the opposing trenches and from this vantage point observed an unusual activity in the German lines. The colonel therefore ordered a curtain fire directed in front of the Germans.

Sweep German Lines.

Meanwhile the French infantry in the front lines swept the German front lines with rifle and hand grenades while the French trench mortars worked as never before. The German infantry, who could be seen waiting with bayonets fixed, now found it impossible to leave their trenches to go over the top. The greater part of two German divisions joined in the attack. Their artillery, owing to the close proximity of the French and German lines was unable to play on French front line for fear of hitting their own men. The French gunners, more accurate in firing, managed to shower shells on the German trenches. Several strong detachments of German infantrymen notwithstanding the severity of the French cannonading succeeded in crossing the intervening space and obtained a footing in the French trenches at a few points. The defenders, composed of regiments from southern France who had originally captured the position were determined to maintain their hold. They immediately counter-attacked and everywhere ejected the Germans. They advanced and captured several German trenches which they still hold. The whole action here as at other points in this battle on the eleven mile front was not a mere trench raid but a carefully planned attempt by the Germans to reconquer Chemin-des-Dames, to whose loss they cannot reconcile themselves. Hundreds of their dead, many of whom were youths of the 1918 class, lie with packs still strapped on their backs in front of the French lines and in the shell craters.

The French commanding officers are enthusiastic about the undiminished dash and vigor of their men which they regard as largely attributable to the moral aid provided by the arrival of American troops in France and the Russian forward movement in Galicia.

The commanding general declared to the Associated Press that the presence of American fighting men not only encouraged the French soldiers in the ranks but also their commanders.

SHARPLY CRITICISES GERMAN CROP REPORT

COPENHAGEN, July 6.—The German government's over-optimistic report on the crop prospects which were declared on June 25 to be "really brilliant" were sharply criticized yesterday by speakers in the reichstag ways and means committee. They accuse the government of giving the people a false view of the situation, arousing unrealistic hopes. Prince Von Schoenaich-Carolath, a national liberal, himself a farmer, declared roundly that the official article had misrepresented the facts and tended to give rise to foolish expectations at a time when it was impossible to know what the crop results would be.

This speaker corroborated the charges of the Socialist Deputy Ebert, made at Tuesday's session, on the food and fuel situation. He alluded to the "utter confusion" in the food regulation measures and declared the situation aroused great depression and bitterness.

SUBMARINE SUNK DANISH STEAMER

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Despatches to the state department today said survivors of the Danish Steamer Freden had made a statement to the maritime court in Copenhagen that while the vessel was sailing from Portugal to Thorshaven, Faroe Islands with a cargo of salt she was overhauled on May 16 by a German submarine which opened gun fire without warning, killing one of the crew, wounding another and damaging the life boat.

Under heavy fire from shells the crew of eight made a vain attempt to repair the life boat and then put off in a small boat. Only a small supply of provisions and water could be carried. On the following day the captain and one of the crew died. On May 18 the other men were saved in an exhausted condition.

BELIEVE I. W. W.'s PLAN TO BURN DAKOTA CROPS

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 6.—Regular army officers in South Dakota claim to have reliable information that industrial workers of the world leaders in the state are in possession of maps of the principal agricultural districts of the state and have men stationed throughout the state who will make simultaneous attempts to burn this season's crops, it was made known here today.

Federal officers have been apprised of the plot and every effort will be made to apprehend those connected with it, it was said. The revelations were made public as a warning to the farmers to guard against the activities of the plotters. At the office of the United States district attorney here it was stated that the warning could not be made too strong.

MENS CLOTHES TO COST MORE NEXT YEAR.

Chicago, July 6.—Men's wearing apparel will cost more in 1918, in the opinion of members of the national association of Clothing Designers, who are meeting here. The advance in price is said today to be inevitable because of conditions due to the war. Materials are scarcer and higher, according to the members and labor troubles have increased expenses. It was pointed out that enlistments have reduced their employees, while overhead expenses have increased more than 20 percent in the last year.

PATROLMAN KILLS ALDERMAN.

Herrin, Ill., July 6.—Jake Baltimore, a patrolman of Energy, five miles south of here shot and killed Alderman Francis Worsham, of that village after an argument today. Following the shooting Baltimore came to this city and surrendered, explaining that he shot by mistake. He is held without bail.

Worsham was to have testified in a lawsuit brought against Baltimore for assaulting a boy when he rested him.

COMMUNITY CELEBRATION HELD AT LITERBERY

Independence Day Observance at the Lithenish Home Proves Successful as Red Cross Benefit—Patriotic Pageant Cleverly Planned and Well Acted.

The Independence day observance at the home of A. W. Petefish has each year been an event of importance among Lithenish people. This year the event took the nature of a patriotic pageant and people of the entire vicinity joined for a real community celebration. The big parade was the center of attraction and in this were represented each one of "Uncle Sam's Children." Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Mrs. J. W. Young, Miss Grace Myers and Miss Lillie Lind comprised the decorating committee and their work was most artistically done.

The presentation of "Uncle Sam's Children" was accompanied by music furnished by a chorus and by the Lithenish orchestra. As each performer or group took the stage an appropriate musical number was given. The singers were Miss Wilma Crum, Mrs. J. M. Litter, Mrs. John Daniels, Orville Crum and J. S. Hitchens. Miss Annabel Crum was pianist for the chorus.

Proceeds from this celebration will be applied toward the Lithenish Red Cross branch, the support of which has been remarkably good. At the close of the program Miss Lora Petefish, who planned the celebration, made a talk on the Red Cross, bespoke support of the Lithenish branch and urged all who have not done so to take out Red Cross membership.

Uncle Sam's Children. Leading the parade were James Alvin Dunlap as "Uncle Sam" and Miss Alta Crum as "Miss Columbia." Following came thirteen young women representing the original colonies and the song at this time was America.

Three old soldiers, S. C. Ennis, George C. Litter and A. W. Petefish, represented "The Spirit of '61," and as they took their place "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching" was sung.

Wayne Dinwiddie, a Spanish war veteran, stood next. Then came the parade of young men who recently registered, an imposing company forty five strong who took their places as the strains of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" sounded forth again. They represented the Spirit of 1917.

Three Red Cross nurses, Misses Mildred Underbrink, Barbara Carpenter and Alice Gunter, came next in line, and others in their order were:

Sailor boys—Eugene Young, Wiley Scribner and Keefe Gunter.

Boy scouts—James Robert Beavers, Russell Dunlap and Don Chapman.

Flower tableau—"Roses of England and Lilies of France"—Misses Mabel and Emma Johnson.

Illinois—Miss Grace Myers.

Washington—Will Dunlap.

Martha Washington—Mary Phelps.

President Wilson—Paul Petefish.

Mrs. Wilson—Lois Hopkins.

Indians—Harold and Earl Petefish and Jewell Phelps.

Dixie—Clarice Gunter.

At this point in procession came the adopted children of "Uncle Sam." They were: Chinaman, Landis Young; Jew, Paul Phelps; Japanese, Helen Young and May Hickson; and the parade was concluded by "Young America" in go-carts and on tricycles.

A flag drill on the lawn was given to good effect by eleven girls and then a group of children sang "Wave Old Glory," after which there was a military march and salute. Miss Wilma Crum sang "Good Luck to the U. S. A." and "The Little Soldier and the Red Cross Maiden" was the duet selection of Russell Dunlap and Miss Mildred Underbrink. "The Land of Glory" was sung by Annabel Crum, Russell Dunlap and Miss Alta Crum.

The closing number was a tableau series introduced by the song, "Tonight." "The Girl I Left Behind Me" was shown as a soldier's dream and this was followed by the singing of "Farewell Daisy Belle" by Miss Wilma Crum. The story of the soldier's life was completed by the return scene when the songs were "Old Mother at Home," "Little Gray Mother" and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS CALL COPPER STRIKE

JEROME, Ariz., July 6.—Industrial Workers of the World today called a strike on copper mines here effective today to enforce demands identical with those presented at Globe by men now on strike there.

Immediately after the strike was called notices were posted by the Jerome local of the International Union of Mine and Smelter workers informing workers the action was taken without authority and that the union could not recognize the order. Each man to decide individually.

Appeal for U. S. Troops.

Globe, Ariz., July 6.—Governor Campbell was advised by telegraph tonight of the calling of the miners' strike in the Jerome district of Northern Arizona and an appeal was made to him to send United States troops there. The governor declined to comment upon the request tonight.

WILL MAKE DECLARATIONS TO SERVE AS BASIS FOR PEACE

London, July 6.—Declarations which will serve as a basis for peace negotiations will be made by the German chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, in his coming speech before the reichstag, according to German sources of information at The Hague as quoted by the Central News correspondent there. This changed attitude is said to be the outcome of the conviction that all hopes of a separate peace with Russia must be abandoned, and that a Russian offensive must be faced.

AN AMERICAN SOLDIER IN ENGLAND

Paper From Manchester Gives Idea of New Relationships Between U. S. and England Which War Has Brought

A Jacksonville resident who came here some years ago from Manchester has furnished for publication the following taken from a Manchester, England paper. It gives a very interesting view of the new relationships between England and the United States, and presents some other thoughts that are well worth while.

"He was sitting next to me at dinner, a tall, upright man in khaki. The different cut of his uniform and the little gold sign on his shoulder straps proclaimed him to be one of the advance guard of America's coming army. He had arrived with General Pershing. 'What do you think of England today?' I asked him.

"I am amazed and overwhelmed," the American replied. "The hospitality and kindness that meet us everywhere cannot be put in words. Just as the events of the past few weeks have eliminated the international boundary between Canada and the United States, so the old formality and stiffness with which John Bull used to hedge himself seem to have vanished. I am very busy while I am here. Everywhere I meet the same reception. As soon as business is fixed up the Englishman turns to me. 'Now, apart from this business, what can I do to serve you here? Have a cup of tea? Is there anything you would like to do? Can I take you anywhere? Let me be of some use to you!'"

"I am persuaded that this war is the best thing that ever happened for England. It is going to be your salvation. I visited this country some time before war broke out. I returned to my own country mourning in the belief that England was degenerating. You were growing a rare crop of fads and fashions. The nation was split into numerous warring groups. The maddest cranks had eager followers. The gulf between the classes was deep and fast. It seemed to me that you were in danger of flitting away your great heritage."

"What do I find now? Well, I find a sanity, a clearness of vision and a greatness that are difficult to describe. Your nation has come together. There is little agitation, little outward ferment. Nothing is so surprising as the calm. But underneath that calm is a splendour of sacrifice that would be hard to beat."

"I know a father who has lost his only two sons in the war. They were very much loved sons. But the father said to me, 'I am glad of the war, despite all it has cost us. For it has taught us all real values and swept away much of the dross.' I was at dinner at a party where there was a son who had lost his arm. He was going back to the front, busy on work that a one-armed man could do there. No one was treating him as an object of pity. He had lost his arm, true. That was an incident of the war. But the really important fact, in the mind of the man himself and of all the rest, was that he could still be of good service for his country."

The British Calm

"That is the spirit I find everywhere. Another thing is that your old class distinctions are being more and more wiped out. You and the private soldier and the colonel sitting at the same dinner table. Your universal service is proving a great leveller. All classes are mingling in the ranks, the clerk, the banker and the laborer standing to attention in the same company. This kind of mixing is going to transform social England."

"But it is the calm of your nation that impresses me most of all. Phlegm they called it in Napoleon's day. You are going thru this stupendous experience quietly, in a matter-of-fact fashion. You revolutionize your lives, send your sons wholesale to death, strip yourselves of great possessions, and smile thru it all."

"I've seen a little of your Army. What impressed me most there can be summed up in one word, efficiency. I learned the other day that your economy experts see that the grocer in the army cooks wash-bowls is gathered up and turned to a profit. The fragments of fry food that are left are ground up into chicken meal. People here seem to talk about your mistakes. We can see what you have accomplished."

I hope my American friend will pardon me for repeating his frank and friendly words. For what he told me has been echoed by others of our American visitors. They have come among us with kindly vision and friendly voice, willing and anxious to see the best side of us.

whites against blacks or whether by blacks against whites.

"It is our duty to insist, first of all, on the restoration of order and the reign of law. Upon the foundation of law and order we must build the structure of justice."

Mr. Roosevelt then welcomed the Russian commission.

Asked if he would make a statement when he was leaving the hall, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"I meant everything I said. I stand by it."

"How about the slap on Mr. Gompers' shoulder?"

"That wasn't a hard blow," he replied. "It was only a gentle touch. I did that to emphasize my point. I have no personal grievance against Mr. Gompers."

Gompers Much Surprised. When Mr. Gompers was asked to give his side of the controversy he said:

"I was very much surprised and pained that the colonel acted as he did. He misunderstood me. I made no apology for the riots in the name of labor. I simply explained the situation as it had been reported to me. I repeat, I made no apology. Furthermore, I think the colonel could have reserved his charges—for that's what they were—until an investigation had determined the cause for the riots."

But I know the colonel," concluded Mr. Gompers. "He was only bluffing."

Ambassador Rakhmetiev received an enthusiastic greeting from the throng which packed the hall when he rose to speak.

"The destinies of the world are at stake," he said. "Never have responsibilities of nations, governments, individuals, been so great. There are two paths to follow, two possibilities to consider. On one side is the triumph of Democracy, peaceful and unbounded development of nations exercising fully their inalienable rights for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. On the other hand is a new period of anxious and uncertain militant autocracy, selfish and aggressive in its aims, arrogant in its ways, brutal in its means."

How Long Must I Suffer

From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infect your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Advisor, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D, Atlanta, Ga.

WOOD RIVER BAPTISTS TO MEET IN CANTON

The 49th Annual Session Brought to Successful Close Friday Evening.

The 49th annual session of the Wood River Baptist Sunday School convention closed Friday evening after a most profitable week. Canton was chosen as the next meeting place. The session was opened Friday morning with devotional exercises. A special committee was appointed to prepare a program for the fiftieth anniversary of the organization, which will be held next year. The Rev. A. Madison, the missionary, delivered the missionary sermon.

A committee consisting of Rev. W. H. Snowden, Rev. E. L. Scruggs, Rev. P. W. Benick and Rev. W. B. M. Scott was appointed to revise the constitution.

DR. BORDEN'S ADDRESS.

Dr. E. H. Borden addressed the convention Friday. He said in part: "To the President, Ministers and members of the Wood River Baptist Sunday school convention. In your 49th annual session you have made distinct progress in all the ways which modern Sunday school pedagogy has styled the school of Methods. We congratulate that mighty classic of the presiding officer, Dr. Masoh, a product of the University of Chicago, as well as the addresses of your efficient workers. We hail your old time spiritual fervor is in evidence. Progress is the present watchword. Break neck speed and stunts are before us. Since these may abound yet let us not forget that God does not work in stunts. An educational value may be derived but it is hardly lasting.

"We share with you the sadness that fills your hearts in the death of our two worthy and able Divines, Revs. T. L. Smith of Quincy and E. L. Hart of Monmouth who have gone to their eternal reward.

"These are turbulent times and God is not dead. We must not grow feverish over these billowy waves. Study carefully our own weakness. Allow no undesirable to enter your Sunday schools as teachers. Discard the profane card games, dance halls and questionable movies. Work for the Sabbath. Read your Bibles and devotional books daily. Keep in touch with the Holy Spirit. Let your lives be truly exponents of the true gospel light. Discard all shows. Avoid the boisterous and vulgar. Act well on the street cars.

"Let not the East St. Louis affair blind you to the really square deal in this nation. Do not think that because a few women and children and an abetted crowd helped to kill and burn innocent children and parents that the nation is against us. In your communities lead truly upright lives. Be chaste and careful in your homes. Let your churches have a membership of the truly consecrated. In your work for all other races, be no slacker. Give yourself to an honest daily wage. Do everything to make your town beautiful by keeping your yards clean, pay your honest debts and educate your children. Be economical. Let us urge you to commend in the highest terms the splendid favorably way the editors of our cosmopolitan journals, the Red Cross, Honorable T. Roosevelt, and the friends of the race world wide."

Association Officers.

The following officers were elected: President—Rev. G. C. Mason, Alton. First vice president—Rev. E. H. Fletcher, Chicago. Second Vice president—Mrs. A. V. Manuel, Springfield. Rec. Secy.—Miss Flossie Watson, Springfield. Cor. Secy.—Mrs. F. E. Cook, Quincy. Treasurer—Mrs. A. Tallaferra, Decatur. Added Members—Miss Emma Pears, Peoria; Mrs. Howard Peters, Canton. Art Department President—Miss Hattie McTier. Treas. Secretary—Mrs. Eva T. Dean. Addresses undelivered by Revs. Honus Johnson and DeWitt.

On the introduction of Rev. A. R. Griggs, D. D., Cor. Secy. of the National Baptist Educational Board, he expressed his delight in meeting the convention. He brought the greetings of the National Board. He complimented the convention as to its quiet and peaceable way of conducting business. The National Theological Seminary was explained and the convention was asked to aid the project. He thanked the people for the contributions to the work and praised the hospitality of the people of Jacksonville.

Recalled Famous Preacher Dr. J. Francis Robinson, the National Baptist representative in his farewell address to the convention, called attention to the fact that he was one of the very few American negroes who could truthfully boast of being favored to stand in the pulpit of the world renowned Rev. Chas. Haddon Spurgeon of London, England, that he also has lectured and preached in the leading halls and churches of France, Scotland and other foreign countries. He enjoyed his visit to this city and the courteous treatment extended him and the hospitality of the grand citizens of Jacksonville. He leaves the city tomorrow for Des Moines, Iowa, to attend the Western States convention.

LYNNVILLE TO FORM RED CROSS BRANCH

Organization Initiated Friday Evening at Christian Church Looks Toward Securing of a Hundred Members—Much Interest Shown at the Meeting—Jacksonville People Speak.

The work of organizing a Red Cross branch at Lynnville was begun Friday evening at an enthusiastic meeting held in the Christian church. In the Lynnville vicinity there are already fifty Red Cross members and this number will be increased to a hundred before formal recognition is given of the Lynnville branch of the Morgan County Red Cross society. The chairman will appoint sub-committees at once to complete the organization with representation from the ladies' aid societies and other local bodies.

The meeting was addressed by the members of a Red Cross party from Jacksonville, which included Mayor H. J. Rodgers, Miss Faye Rodgers, Miss Louise Capps, Mrs. Hester Capps, R. I. Dunlap, Rev. W. E. Spoons and E. E. Crabtree. Each speaker told of a different phase of Red Cross activity and the discussion which followed was indicative of the great interest created.

The officers elected were: Chairman—Fred J. Scholfield. Vice chairman—C. H. Gibbs. Secretary—Mrs. L. R. Cronkhite. Treasurer—Leslie Switzer.

The board of directors: Ray Vasey, Grover Vasey, Charles Middleton, E. A. Ranson, Miss Grace Middleton, Mrs. Henry Morthole, Albert Campbell, Mrs. Frank Ranson, J. H. Heaton, Oliver Coultas, Mrs. Laura Adams and Miss Nannie McKinney.

THAT SWIMMING BEACH.

The announcement in the Journal yesterday morning that the park board is contemplating preparations for a swimming beach at Nichols park has aroused a great deal of interest all about the city and already members of the park board are asked when it will be done. It would be a delight to go right at it but circumstances render that impracticable. A large part of the water will have to be let out of the lake and then the finances of the board will not permit of the work being done at all soon. Such a piece of work affording so great diversion is worthy of the aid of those who will enjoy it and already a number have said they would gladly help with contributions. All who are so worthily minded are invited to report to board and their contributions may be an inducement to others to go and do likewise.

ARMY PAY DEPARTMENT AN IMPORTANT BRANCH

Value Likely to be Underestimated as It Performs Its Work so quietly and is so Little Mentioned in Official Bulletins and Reports.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—If one should ask almost any soldier of the army who is the most important officer thereof, the soldier would be most likely to reply, "the paymaster on pay-day." Yet this important and indispensable department of Uncle Sam's military establishment performs its duties so quietly and is so little mentioned in official bulletins and reports, that its value in the service is likely to be underestimated.

There is perhaps no influence so potent in the maintenance and preservation of discipline and order in armies as their just and regular payment. Especially is this true in time of war.

When it is considered that the United States is likely soon to have an army of one million or more men, scattered over the four quarters of the globe, some idea of the colossal task involved in their regular payment may be formed. It is assured however, that every soldier on Uncle Sam's payroll will receive his pay regularly, whether he be stationed within sight of Washington, in the Canal Zone, or at remote posts in Alaska or the Philippines.

In the opinion of experts with years of experience no system can be devised which, equal to the present one, can be made to combine the advantages of prompt payment, the safety of the public money, and an accurate and prompt accountability. The present pay system of the army is the result of years of study on the part of those who from time to time have served at the head of this department of the military establishment. The department is as old as the military establishment itself. The earliest legislation creating a pay department, is the resolution of the Continental Congress, in session at Philadelphia, June 16, 1775, as follows:

Resolved, That there be one Paymaster General, and a Deputy under him for the army, in a separate department; that the pay for the Paymaster General himself be one hundred dollars per month, and for the Deputy Paymaster under him, fifty dollars per month."

For many years after the establishment of the Government the pay department of the army was conducted under a rather loose system. As a rule the duty of paying the officers and soldiers was in charge of a chief paymaster, sometimes designated as officers of the line, usually lieutenants, detailed for the purpose. This pay corps was at different times larger or smaller, according to the exigencies of the service as viewed by Congress, as its officers also for the same reason had better pay and rank at some times than at others.

The principle of the payment of the army by line officers detailed for the purpose remained substantially the same until 1821. In that year the system was improved by an act of Congress which practically abolished this mere pay corps and established in its place a pay department, with a chief under the direct orders of the Secretary of War, and subordinates forming an independent staff.

By the time of the civil war, however, the pay department of the military establishment had been well systematized. The statistics of the War Department show that during the long conflict between the States, in which the pay department of the United States Army disbursed $1,100,000,000, the defalcations and losses of all kinds amounted to less than one-tenth of one per cent.

ARRESTED FOR BAD CONDUCT.

Yesterday morning Gilbert and Harry Decker, Ross Baptist, David Tribble, Joseph Burkery and Erna Nunes were brought before Squire Dyer on a charge of bad conduct, preferred by L. B. Haynes, custodian of the first ward playground.

For some time there has been much complaint by citizens of that vicinity of the conduct of boisterous and mischievous boys who gather after the place is closed in the evening and some before and proceed to make things lively. They have broken a lot of the play apparatus and annoyed the children and played the mischief generally and the custodian, Mr. Haynes, made complaint against the ones mentioned. From reports it seems that the boys take delight in teasing Mr. Haynes and cutting up generally and the neighbors are tired of it and asked the park board to close the place.

The park board doesn't intend to be run out of business in any such way and wants it understood. Harvey Decker and Erna Nunes were fined and farther sentence was suspended regarding the others. State's Attorney Robinson and Squire Dyer read the boys a good lecture and dismissed them pending further conduct but held the complaint over them and warned them if any more complaints were made they would get the full extent of the law.

URGE THAT BAKERS REFUSE UNSOLD BREAD

National Defense Council in Desire to Conserve Food Calls Upon Dealers to Stop Return of Bread Not Sold

Under the direction of the Council of National Defense, the Illinois State Council of Defense has called upon all the bakers and retail bread dealers of the state to stop the practice of returning unsold bread, on and after July 10th. Households are urged to co-operate in carrying out that request.

Investigation has shown that about four per cent of the bread baked is returned. Most of the returned bread goes into animal and chicken feeds. The purpose of the Council of National Defense is to eliminate that waste of human food. It is one of the ways of conserving food that both the public and the trade are asked to promote voluntarily and with good will. Compliance with the request does not mean cutting down the rations of the people, but simply the prevention of waste. To help get the desired co-operation the Council sent the following letter to the bakers and retailers of Illinois:

"To the Retail Bread Dealers in Illinois:
The Commercial Economy Board of the Council of National Defense at Washington has decided, after thorough investigation throughout the country, that all bakers in the United States should discontinue the practice of taking back unsold bread."

"The purpose of this, and the only purpose, is to conserve the country's wheat supply by cutting out waste. We hope you will appreciate that it is your solemn duty, as it is the duty of every loyal citizen, to work for the elimination of waste. The rule is not inspired by grocers or bakers. It is nobody's 'scheme'."

"The 'no return' bread rule can be put into effect, with least friction and inconvenience to all concerned by cheerful co-operation between bakers and grocers or other retail bread dealers. The wholesale bakers of the country have agreed upon this course. The State Council of Defense has been delegated to make it effective in Illinois."

"This letter is to notify you that July 10, 1917, is the date fixed for putting the 'no return' bread rule into effect."

"By working together, neither grocer nor baker need suffer hardship. A little more care, a little friendly co-operation to see that retailers have a sufficient but not excessive supply of bread, and the 'no return' rule will be a saving to both baker and grocer as well as a patriotic service to the nation.

"Your prompt co-operation is expected to the end that return of unsold bread shall cease in Illinois on and after July 10, 1917."

FOODSTUFFS IN ENGLAND.

The London Observer now prints in display type the slogan "Eat Less Bread and Don't Waste a Crumb." These words are contradictory to some of the statements received from abroad which have sought to show that foodstuffs are plentiful in England and prices lower than here.

The following also from the Observer indicates the way in which all available space is being used for gardening.

"The planting of potatoes in the flower-beds outside Buckingham Palace is resulting in a very satisfactory looking crop. Few people are aware, however, that within the Palace grounds, where a beautiful display of bulbs is usually followed by an equally vivid selection of bedding-out plants, all is now almost entirely given over to the homely tuber. The Royal residence is in no wise behind its humbler neighbors in the matter of food production. The first pound of tea that ever came to England, so it is said, was brought by Lord Arlington to the coffee house on whose site the Palace now stands, and the first Palace-grown potato may ere long appear on the Royal table."

FLAG PRIZE IN RED CROSS COMPETITION.

A beautiful hand-made Red Cross flag, built with her own hands, will be given by Mrs. Frank O. Lowden to the Illinois county which enrolls the largest number of Red Cross members in proportion to its population.

The presentation will be made early in August, following the conclusion of the Illinois campaign for a million Red Cross members, which is now in progress from Galena to Cairo and from Rock Island to Danville in 102 counties.

In charge of the campaign is a special committee headed by Governor Lowden as honorary chairman and former Governor Richard Yates as general chairman. Former Governors Dunne and Deneen and former Senator Funk are vice-chairmen. The campaign director is Walter C. Thurber, executive secretary of the Illinois Tuberculosis association, who has been "loaned" to the Red Cross for the time being.

In a letter to Mr. Thurber, Mrs. Lowden expresses her keen interest in the movement to enroll one million Illinois men and women under the banner of the Red Cross and announces her willingness to "do her bit" in the campaign by building a Red Cross flag to be awarded the winner in the inter-county competition.

CALL BALL GAME OFF.

New York, July 6.—A game of baseball arranged for next Sunday between the Brooklyn and Chicago teams of the National League for the benefit of war charities was called off tonight by Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, who was held today with Wilbert Robinson the team's manager for the court of special sessions, charged with violating the law last Sunday by putting on a game between Brooklyn and Philadelphia at Ebbets Field. The contention of the club owners is that no admission was charged for the game as tickets were sold for a patriotic concert which preceded the contest.

COBB BREAKS HIS SAFE HITTING STREAK

DETROIT, Mich., July 6.—Ty Cobb failed to hit safely in today's game here, and broke his streak of thirty five consecutive games in which he has hit safely. He still holds the major league record with fourty games.
Faber and Scott were the pitchers who stopped Cobb. The former has always been a difficult proposition for the Detroit star to solve. He recently held Cobb hitless until the Georgian came to bat for the last time. Then Ty beat out a bunt.
Faber, during his major league career has held Cobb to a batting average of less than .255. The late Addie Joss was the only pitcher who has been more effective against the great outfielder. Cobb was at bat three times against Faber today. On his last trip to the plate, Jim Scott opposed him and Cobb's effort was a grounder to Weaver. Cobb began his hitting streak against Cleveland on Decoration Day. He averaged .500 during the eastern trip and continued his terrific hitting when the Detroit club returned to the west.

DIRECTORS OF NATIONAL LEAGUE RECESS FOR WEEK

NEW YORK, July 6.—The board of directors of the National League did not decide today whether John E. McGraw, manager of the New York team, really said what he was quoted by four members of the Baseball Writers' association as having said about John K. Tener, president of the league, after his fine and suspension for an altercation with Umpire Byron in Cincinnati on June
8. A special meeting of the board was held here at the demand of the Baseball Writers for an opportunity to establish the authenticity of the interview which McGraw repudiated.
After a three hour session adjournment was taken for a week so additional witnesses could be summoned.

RE-ARRANGING COURSE.

Chicago, July 6.—Work of re-arranging the course of the Midlothian Country Club over which the western amateur golf championship will be played next week was started today.

St. Louis

Detroit, July 6.—Bunching two doubles, a triple and a single with two errors in the fourth Detroit won the final game of the series with Chicago today, 4 to 1. Dauess, altho allowing 12 hits, scattered them and would have scored a shutout but for Bush's error in the eighth. Cobb broke his batting streak of 35 games by going hitless in four times

EDITORS AT MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Minn., July 6.— Headquarters were established at the West Hotel today in anticipation of the opening of the annual convention of the National Editorial Association, which is to hold forth in this city during the first four days of the coming week. An attendance of between 500 and 600 newspaper publishers and editors from all parts of the United States and Canada is expected at the gathering.

During the convention papers will be read and there will be discussions on all phases of editorial and news writing, and the relations of newspapers to the public. The exorbitant cost of news print paper will be one of the most important subjects to receive the attention of the convention. The high price has been bearing heavily on the publishers of small newspapers and the association members are in large measure publishers of the smaller papers.
Minneapolis and St. Paul have combined in preparing an elaborate program for the entertainment of the visiting editors and their families. Trips to nearby lakes and other points of interest will be included among the entertainment features.

dred delegates, representing various phases of the movements for peace, democracy, and the improvement of labor conditions are expected in Chicago tomorrow for the opening of committee in charge of the conference announces that the general subject of discussion will be "Safeguarding Democracy in War Time." Government secret agents and representatives of the Chicago police department are expected to be on hand to see that the meeting does not develop into an anti-war demonstration.

POTTERS IN CONVENTION

Atlantic City, N. J., July 6.—The effects of the war on the pottery annual convention which was opened here today by the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters. The convention is attended by many leading representatives of the industry in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and other states.

Why You Should Invest In PAN-AMERICAN STOCK

Why should you Mr. Man, with $100, $1,000 or $10,000 to invest, dig in and place your money on PAN-AMERICAN!

In the first place, because there is no better investment—no safer or more profitable one—than an investment in a “coming” automobile concern. Such an investment means low prices for shares, assurance of good dividends right from the start, and a TREMENDOUS INCOME after a few years. Read the table below for the HUGE returns small investments in 15 other automobile projects brought.

In the second place, because the Pan-American Motors Corporation is more than a “coming” automobile concern—it is an ON-THE-WAY organization. The SHREWDEST, the WISEST, the MOST EFFICIENT BRAINS in MOTORDOM and in the WORLD of FINANCE BELIEVE in the PAN-AMERICAN IDEA and are BACKING their belief with their MONEY, their TIME, and their ENERGY. If you will clip the coupon in the lower left-hand corner, we will send you details ABSOLUTELY CONVINCING as to the SAFETY and WISDOM of investing in Pan-American stock.

Invest Before 25% Rise

when it is, stock will be 25% higher than the $10 a share which it is today. As soon as this first factory is in operation, the erection of a long line of similar factories will get under way.

We who have been working with the Pan-American Idea day and night for months feel so confident of the solidity of our organization and the selling strength of our car that it seems conservative to promise a 200% increase in the value of Pan-American stock by the end of 1918. Our organization—an organization of experts and business men of the highest ability and integrity, including men like C. V. Morse, former production manager of the Locomobile, before that for the American Locomotive Co., and before that superintendent of the E. M. F. Automobile Co., and men like William A. Phares, former cashier of The National Bank of Decatur,—are not the only faithful backers of the Pan-American car. DEALERS ALL OVER the COUNTRY have already swarmed to us through the mails with agency offers—many of them have offered SOLID CASH deposits!

Our requests for stock subscriptions have met with a hearty response, in this part of the country especially. Every mail for the last few weeks has been crowded with checks, from the modest $10 one-share purchaser to the large investor who expresses his confidence and sound business judgment to the tune of thousands.

Gratifying—to say the least!
